

Luangwa Wilderness Safari

8-day luxury Safari in the South Luangwa National Park, hosted by the Bushcamp Company

Day 1: Arrive Lusaka

You will be met on arrival at Lusaka Airport and assisted through immigration and in boarding your flight to Mfuwe.

On arrival in Mfuwe, you will be met and transferred to a Bushcamp Company Camp. During December, there are three exclusive camps to choose from, depending on availability and preference: Bilimungwe, Kapamba and Zungulila. Each of the three bush camps is located in the remote southern regions of the park amid wild surroundings, and each has its own individual character. Just eight guests can be accommodated at each camp, ensuring that your stay is peaceful, relaxing, and tailored to your individual interests and needs.

You'll stay four nights at your chosen bush camp on full-board basis, with daily game-viewing activities, all National Park fees and conservation levies included.

Days 2-4: South Luangwa National Park

The next 3 days will spend exploring the South Luangwa.

During your stay, you will have the opportunity to explore the Luangwa Valley on foot or by 4x4 - or a combination of the two. Driven safaris (day and night) allow you to cover more ground and get as close to the wildlife as possible, while walking safaris offer a very different perspective on the bush. All activities are led by experienced guides with an intimate knowledge of the bush.

Christmas in South Luangwa

December is a great time to visit the Luangwa, and during the holiday period the Bushcamp Company goes to great lengths to celebrate the occasion! It's a lovely time to be in the bush, as there will typically have been a little rain - just enough to give that first flush of green. All the impalas will have given birth, so it is very much a period of plenty.

All the camps and their guests come together on Christmas Eve at Kalwani Pan for sundowners and to sing Christmas carols. It's a great event with music, food, and a lively atmosphere. On Christmas Day, Santa Claus comes to a Bush Breakfast on a bicycle and delivers presents to all the guests! The lodges make the day as special as possible with a delicious meal.

Days 5-7: Mfuwe Lodge

After the morning activity, you will be transferred to Mfuwe Lodge for 3 nights (full board basis, including game-viewing activities, National Park fees and conservation levies).

Mfuwe Lodge

Mfuwe Lodge is situated in a prime location in the centre of the park. Sheltered beneath ebony trees, the lodge overlooks a huge ox-bow lagoon that attracts a rich variety of game.

The lodge has 18-rooms which centre on an open-plan lounge, dining room and bar. It opens onto a wide wooden deck with infinity pool, raised just above the lagoon so as to make the most of the wonderful views. There's also a library and a spa with jacuzzi.

The thatched chalets are built on raised platforms, all with views of the lagoon, and equipped with amenities including mini-fridges and tea/coffee facilities.

The guiding and game-viewing at Mfuwe Lodge is of a high standard, in keeping with the other camps in the Bushcamp portfolio. There is more of an emphasis on game drives rather than walking safaris, which are better suited to the more remote regions of the Luangwa valley.

Day 8: International departure

In the afternoon, you will transfer by road to Mfuwe airport where you check-in for your flight to Lusaka and onward connection.
